

Online diabetes training for health and social care staff

For all healthcare professionals caring for adult inpatients with Diabetes.

The Cambridge Diabetes Education Programme (CDEP) modules are now available on ESR.

They can be completed at a level suited to you from core to expert.

This is the list of available modules.

Module name	Text to type in ESR Course Search box
430 Blood Glucose and Ketone Monitoring – available in core and intermediate levels	430 Blood Glucose
430 Caring for the Diabetic Foot - Core elearning	430 Caring for the Diabetic
430 Continuous Glucose Monitoring - available in core, intermediate, specialist, and expert levels	430 Continuous
430 Diabetes 10 point training - adult inpatient elearning	430 Diabetes 10 Point
430 Hospital Hypos - available in core, intermediate, specialist, and expert levels	430 Hospital Hypos
430 Injectable Therapies - available in core and intermediate levels	430 Injectable Therapies
430 Managing Diabetes in the Emergency Department - available in core and intermediate levels	430 Managing Diabetes
430 Oral Therapies - available in core, intermediate, and specialist levels	430 Oral Therapies
430 Safe Use of Insulin in Hospital – available in core, intermediate, and specialist levels	430 Safe Use of Insulin
430 What is Diabetes - available in core, intermediate, specialist, and expert levels	430 What is Diabetes

For further information on how to enrol follow the link below (or scan the QR code):
<https://intranet.mkuh.nhs.uk/library/e-learning>

