

Request under Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your request for information which we received on 04 September 2019.

I am pleased to confirm the following.

· All Trust guidelines and all staff guidelines that contain information regarding induction of labour, including but not limited to indications for induction of labour, the risks and/or benefits of induction of labour, best clinical practices concerning induction of labour, and/or guidance for counselling patients concerning induction of labour.

Please see attached

· All leaflets, posters, form letters, information sheets, or other similar products provided to patients that contain information concerning induction of labour, including but not limited to indications for induction of labour, the risks and benefits of induction of labour, and/or clinical information about induction of labour.

Please see attached

· All minutes of meetings of Trust personnel at which Trust policies, communications and/or guidelines related to induction of labour were discussed.

Please note individuals details are exempt under Section 40, Personal Information (where disclosure may contravene the Data Protection Act) unless permission to release is given or the information is already in the public domain.

· All email communications between Trust personnel and/or between Trust personnel and other public employees/officials (inclusive) that mention existing or proposed Trust policies and/or guidelines regarding induction of labour.

Please note individuals details are exempt under Section 40, Personal Information (where disclosure may contravene the Data Protection Act) unless permission to release is given or the information is already in the public domain.
