

Who's who: ward staff

Each job role has a different uniform, We have put together a guide of the most common uniforms you will see during your stay and provided some information about their job role.

Matron

Matrons are in charge of the nursing staff and look after catering and cleaning services of their areas.

Advanced nurse practitioner

Advanced nurse practitioners assist doctors in managing chronic conditions

Charge nurse and sister

The sisters and charge nurses are responsible for supervising and assisting staff nurses

Staff nurse

Staff nurses are in charge of individual patient care and administration of medication

Healthcare assistant

Healthcare assistants assist staff nurses in your personal care

Phlebotomist

Phlebotomists take your blood samples to the lab to be processed

Ward clerk

Ward clerks are responsible for administrative tasks on the ward

Occupational therapist

Occupational therapists help patients of all ages live as independently as possible

Occupational therapist assistant

Occupational therapist assistants assist the occupational therapists

Physiotherapist

Physiotherapists help patients of all ages improve their mobility

Pharmacist

The Pharmacist's role is to help review and order your medications

Domestic services

The domestic staff are responsible for keeping the hospital clean and providing refreshments